

Jean de la Rosette, MD PhD

Dr de la Rosette is Professor in Urology at AMC University Hospital in Amsterdam (the Netherlands) and Professor in Urology at Istanbul Medipol University, Istanbul (Turkey). He completed his medical degree and urology residency at St Radboud University Hospital in Nijmegen, the Netherlands. His main fields of interest are minimal invasive surgery and endourology with a special focus on ablative treatments and urological ultrasound. Dr de la Rosette is a member of the committee on Minimal Invasive Treatment of Benign Prostatic Hyperplasia (BPH) and the committee on Upper Urinary Tract Urothelial tumors of the ICUD. He is also co-chairman of the committee on Renal Stone Disease of the ICUD. He is past-chairman of the EAU Section of Uro-Technology (ESUT) and board member of the Society of Endourology. Dr. de la Rosette was a chairman of the European Association of Urology (EAU) working party on BPH guidelines. Dr de la Rosette is (co)author of over 700 peer-reviewed publications and has authored many book chapters. Dr de la Rosette is a member of various urological societies and board member of the Endourological Society and the Société Internationale d'Urologie (SIU). Since 2016 he holds the position of General Secretary of the SIU.